

ELIZA VITALE FOUND!

After receiving an anonymous tip last Saturday, police discovered Miss Eliza Vitale in an abandoned house.

She was bound and gagged, but apparently unharmed.

The house was located in an unsavory area off of OBT. It was completely gutted and devoid of everything but the paint on the walls. Even the light fixtures and electrical outlets were gone. The house was also devoid of any signs of occupation, fingerprints and was apparently scrubbed clean by a mixture of bleach and ammonia.

There was no sign of the kidnapers and when questioned, Miss Eliza was unable to answer any questions about either her abduction or where she has been all this time.

As for the name of the man she was seen with at EDBD, she has refused to give his identity to the police.

"I just want to return to normalcy," she has stated to the press.

The police are stumped as to who her abductors were and what they wanted, as no demands were made.

UCF and Florida State Team Up to Clean Lake Eola

An anonymous donor has funneled millions of dollars to both chemistry departments of Florida State and UCF, with instructions to spend the money on finding a solution to lake poisoning.

So, as of last Monday, biochemists from both schools have descended upon Lake Eola.

The cleanup effort is underway and the lake is improving steadily.

It is unknown how long the clean-up will take, but it is hoped that Lake Eola will be ready in time for Fourth of July celebrations.

Police Increase Patrols in “Spruce Up Orlando” Project

Police Chief Gulpin has increased Police patrols in the I-4 and 408 areas as well as in the Fashion Square Mall.

Increased Officer presence has cut down crimes and helped to increase the safety of these areas.

The “Spruce Up Orlando” project has also increased the “Neighborhood Watch ” and the “Citizens On Patrol” programs available.

Anyone interested in joining the “Citizens on Patrol” program should apply in person at the Police Station.

If you would like to have the “Neighborhood Watch” program added to your neighborhood, please contact the Sheriff’s department.

By working together, “Spruce Up Orlando” will make this city a prime tourist attraction again!

For those wishing to join the ranks of the police, a new class is starting at the Police Academy this August.

Any citizen can help out with the “See Something, Say Something” program as well.

If you see a crime committed, see a crime in progress, or just see suspicious behavior, remember to call the hotline and report it immediately.

Trans Orlando Railway Upgrade in Trouble

Construction was begun on the Trans Orlando Railway as planned but has now hit a snag.

Although early in the planned construction, the train station is now under a transportation audit. This would not normally be an issue but due to certain, undisclosed discrepancies that have been found early in the audit, all construction has been halted, and trains grounded while a further investigation is underway.

This is both inconvenient timing and unfortunate for all the workers who are now on hold while they await permission to continue their work.

Serial Killer Continues to Evade Police

It has been confirmed, we have a serial killer among us.

The killing spree continues and more bodies are found on a disturbingly continual basis.

The first twenty victims where found badly mangled and appeared to have been killed with a sharp, pointy item.

The mutilation has changed. Now the killer appears to maim the victims and then proceeds to consume flesh, eventually killing the victim.

A fourth body has been found this way and Police Chief Gulpkin vows to find the culprit.

Although he will not comment, it is suspected that all of these crimes have been committed by the same killer. It is thought that quick deaths have lost their appeal and the sicko has upped their “game.”

Exocannibalism is the act of consuming the flesh of your enemy, or victim, in order to observe their power or characteristics.

As for why the killer is now practicing exocannibalism is a matter of speculation.

Cannibalism of any form is not generally found in the United States, but in the Marquesas Islands, Polynesia, there were some warring tribes that sometimes practiced exocannibalism.

The historian and author W.D. Rubinstein, wrote:

“It was considered a great triumph among the Marquesans to eat the body of a dead man. They treated their captives with great cruelty. They broke their legs to prevent them from attempting to escape before being eaten, but kept them alive so that they could brood over their impending fate. ... With this tribe, as with many others, the bodies of women were in great demand.”

So the question is, are we dealing with someone who is just mentally disturbed who has sicko tendencies or do we have an actual serial killer cannibal among us?

THE ZOMBIE CRAZE HITS AN ALL NEW HIGH

Halloween comes early to O-Town this year. A zombie has been reported, hanging out at the Greenwood Cemetery.

Multiple sightings of this character has been reported, and pictures are going viral on the social medias.

One older couple even called in a report to the police when the prank included the zombie eating what appeared to be a cat.

No apparent sacrifices, zombies or dead cats were discovered though when the cops responded.

While no one has taken credit of the prank, the sightings continue and speculation is running rampant.

One of the oldest cemeteries in Orlando, it is located at 1603 Greenwood Street.

Perhaps Orlando will be the staging point for a zombie movie. Or maybe they will be making another "House on Haunted Hill" and using the Greenwood Cemetery as a backdrop. In which case, we could be getting a glimpse of what is to come.

We would love to have Warner Brothers back in Central Florida and who would not enjoy a long awaited sequel to the 1999 film.

Calls made to Warner Brothers has been met with "No comment" replies.

So keep your fingers crossed and watch out for zombies!

Sweet dreams are made of Zombies!
